PREFACE.

The following copy of the Registers of the Parish of Glasbury has been made with as much accuracy as possible, names of places and persons being spelt as written.

It is greatly to be regretted that the Register Book 1615—1666, which appears to have been in existence in the latter year, cannot be found.

In compiling these Registers I have been greatly assisted by my cousin, Mr. J. T. Wood, Barrister-at-Law, and my thanks are also due to the Vicar, the Rev. H. Gibbon, for allowing me free access to the Registers.

THOMAS WOOD,

Lord of the Manor.

GWERNYFED PARK, THREE COCKS,
BRECONSHIRE.

INTRODUCTION.

The parish to which these Registers belong consisted of the mother parish of Glasbury, in the County of Radnor, and the hamlets of Tregoyd, Velindre and Pipton, in the County of Brecon; the whole forming the township of Glasbury.

To the above must be added the parish of Aberllynfi, in Breconshire. This was always a separate ecclesiastical, as it is still a separate civil parish. The church and graveyard were near Great House Farm in a field, No. 35 Ordnance Map, and the site of the church is now walled round. The font and altar monogram I H S were removed to Glasbury Church about 1886. The living (a Rectory) was in the gift of the family of Williams, Baronets of Gwernyfed, several of whom are buried in the Church. It was probably a donative living, and the patron ceasing to appoint about 1660, and the Church to be repaired, the inhabitants became, for all ecclesiastical purposes, parishioners of Glasbury. The old Parish Church of Glasbury stood on the Stonces, No. 799 Ordnance Map, between the Rivers Wye and Llynfi, and close to the junction of those rivers. Some mounds still mark the site. By degrees the Wye washed away the churchyard exposing the graves, endangered the Church, and eventually separated it from the Vicarage, which still stands at the south-west end of Glasybout Common.

In 1660, the Vicar, Alexander Griffiths, a man of notable energy, who had been ejected under the Commonwealth and reinstated at the Restoration, began to move in the matter, and in 1662 a new Church was begun to be built on the present site, and which site was given by Sir Henry Williams of Gwernyfed.

A full account of the interesting ceremony of dedication is given in Archæologia Cambrensis, October, 1870.

This Church was dedicated to St. Peter, 29th June, 1665, but was pulled down 1837-38, and the present Church built on its site at a cost of about £3,000. Mr. Vulliamy was the architect. Nothing belonging to the old church appears in it except a few monuments and the altar rails, which may date back to the Church on the Stones.

There were Chapels of Ease at Velindre and Pipton. The former probably stood close to the Village Green at the junction of the roads leading from Hay and Glasbury to Velindre respectively. The field there, No. 262 on Ordnance Map, is still called the Chapel Field. The latter stood on the left bank of Llynfi immediately below Pipton Bridge, No. 225 on Ordnance Map, where the foundations can still be traced. Tradition says that the porch of Velindre Chapel now stands as the entrance to Gwernyfed Old Hall.

The ancient parish of Glasbury has been altered as follows :—

An Order in Council 28th December, 1882, created the Ecclesiastical Parish of All Saints', Glasbury, Radnorshire, consisting of all that part of the parish that lay in Radnorshire, i.e., on left bank of River Wye, and a Church was built for this new parish and a Vicarage House for the old parish in Breconshire.

A further Order in Council, 23rd August, 1883, approved a scheme for apportioning the tithes between the two parishes.

With regard to the Civil Parish :—

An Order of the Local Government Board, 19th Dec., 1883, amalgamated the hamlet of Glasbury, Breconshire, (which was that part of the ancient township of Glasbury, which was left in Breconshire, when the County Boundary was altered to the River Wye in 1844), with the hamlets of Tregoyd and Velindre, making them the parish of Tregoyd and Velindre.

Pipton, though still called a hamlet, has long been a separate Civil Parish.

Therefore, for Civil purposes, the parish of Glasbury, Breconshire, has ceased to exist, and the Ecclesiastical Parish of St. Peter's, Glasbury, Breconshire, now consists of the Civil parishes of Tregoyd and Velindre, Pipton, and Aberllynfi.

The following are the Nonconformist Chapels in the parish :—

BRECONSHIRE.

Baptist Chapel with graveyard at Penyrheol. The Cause here was founded in 1780, when meetings were held at the Island Farm. The present chapel was erected soon after 1780, and is endowed with the Island Farm and other funds.

The Baptist Chapel by Glasbury Bridge was erected in 1866 at a cost of about £900, and on a site given by Mr. Piercy, of London.

The Welsh Presbyterian (Calvinistic Methodist) Chapel at Velindre was erected in 1862 on a site given by Colonel Thomas Wood of Gwernyfed.

RADNORSHIRE.

Maesyronen Congregational Chapel erected 1696. Trust Deed dated 1714, endowed with Blainey Farm, 38 acres. Burial Ground attached.

Congregational Chapel on Glasbury Green erected 1866.

Wesleyan Methodist Chapel at Cwmbach erected 1818 on site given by Mr. R. Hargest, of Skynlas. Burial Ground provided 1836.

NOTE TO THE INDEX NOMINUM.

With regard to this Index, it has been the combined work of Mr. Wood and Mr. Fry. The former gentleman undertook the earlier and more essentially Welsh portion, that is to say, from page 1 to 160, while the latter took from page 161 to the end, when the names had, to a great extent, become crystallized into surnames as we now understand them.

The result of the combined work has, however, resulted in a little confusion respecting certain surnames, but if those who consult this Register will refer to the following table, there will be little danger of their missing any name for which they may be searching. The cross references, also, will make it fairly clear.

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information, is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
